"I think the director overplayed his hand."

A Note From the Editor

Welcome to the third issue of CINEMANIA!

If it is new to you, there are listings of special screenings in southeast Michigan. Our idea was to improve something about each issue, but this one was a little tough to just get to the finish line for various personal reasons. Hopefully we can get distribution figured out a little better and find a way to efficiently get the gazettes into homes where they can be used.

I didn't really know anything about making a newspaper when I started CINEMANIA! and have been learning as I go. I am taking some online classes in typography and graphic design and have been going to the letterpress labs at the Ann Arbor District Library. It is really cool that the library has this service to learn about traditional typesetting.

The tabloid format is a little unwieldy to transport and place out for distribution, so we may be switching to a different format next month. We also are launching a website with the listings and some other features. Stay tuned for developments.

Some special programming this month:

A2 Summer Festival

(free dusk showings at Rackham Stage)

6/18 Napoleon Dynamite

6/19 The Color Purple (2023)

6/20 Sing

6/25 Little Shop of Horrors

(1986)

6/26 Eternal Sunshine of the

Spotless Mind

6/30 Barbie

Motor City Cinema

Mondays at 7p $5 in 16MM

at the screening room next to

Redford Theatre Detroit

6/3 Pinball Summer

6/10 Heavy Metal

6/17 Anatomy of a Murder

6/24 Serpico
